Section B3 - JUNIOR SHEEP JUDGING COMPETITION

Judging starting from 1pm
Sashes Junior Judging Merino Sheep 1st, 2d, 3rd
Junior Judging Meat Sheep 1st, 2nd 3rd

Aim

While the competition will be competitive with prizes awarded to winners and placegetters, the main aim will be to provide an enjoyable, educational, experience for competitors.

Format

1. Competitors will be judging pens of commercial sheep and lambs as opposed to stud sheep. This will give them an opportunity to learn about and be exposed to animals they are likely to encounter in most sheep farming situations.
2. Separate competitions will be held for merino ewes and meat lambs.
3. Competitors to be between 12 and 18 years of age on the day of the show. If there are sufficient numbers, a 12 to 15 years class and a 16 to 18 years class will be held.
4. An experienced industry individual will be appointed as judge for the competition and will also provide comments, feedback and encouragement to competitors.

Conditions

1. Competitors are required to be appropriately dressed'(boots or fully covered shoes are required)
2. Competitors must respect the welfare of the sheep and lambs at all times
3. The judge's decision is final in regard to the placing of animals and points awarded in assessments
4. A perpetual trophy will be awarded the "Most Successful School" in the Junior Judging competitions at the Rylstone-Kandos Show. This will be decided by awarding 3 points for first, 2 points for second and 1 point for third in each of
5. the Beef Cattle, Merino Sheep and Meat Lamb sections with the school gaining the highest number of points declared the winner.

Merino Section

Sash for winner, ribbons to 3rd place.

1. Competitors will have 4 pens of ewes to judge.
2. Ten points will be awarded for each pen place in the same order as the judge.
3. Competitors will then be asked to provide 4 written assessments of each pen.

These assessments will cover:

1. Wool quality (up to 5 points);
2. Carcass quality (up to 5 points);
3. Growth for age and type (up to 5 points); Other relevant comments (up to 5 points).

This will give a maximum of 30 points per pen or a total maximum of 120 points. The competitor with the highest number of points will be declared the winner.

Lamb Section

1. Competitors will have 4 pens of meat lambs to judge.
2. As for Merino section
3. Competitors will be asked to provide 4 written assessments of each pen.

These assessments will cover:

1. Suitability to industry requirements (up to 5 points) Carcass quality (up to 5 points)
2. Skin quality (up to 5 points) Other comments (up to 5 points)

Points will be allocated as per the Merino section. Sash for Winner, ribbons to 3rd place
